

DO NOT KNOW WHY
© 2008 Rebecca Roubion

I walked a mile just to see your pretty face

I walked a mile just to take one down

You said hello just to put me in my place

You said hello just to take one down

I do not know why

I do not know why

I said, I don't know why

I built an ocean, you gave me a little land

We built an island just to take one down

You took your sailboat and showed me the southern coast

You took my hand just to take one down

Chorus
(Instrumental)

You are the rock that I've got stuck in my shoe

I can't get rid of you

(Instrumental)
Chorus
