

IN HEAVEN
© 2005 Rebecca Roubion

I'm running down the path / That leads me to you

Looks like I've found my way back / My soul is longing for you

Being held under the depths / Of the deepest sea

Oh but you are my air / Only through you I can breathe

Cause I'm in heaven / When your arms fall around me

All my tears are swept away / By your wounded hands

With your mercy eyes upon me / I know I can sleep soundly

I'm in heaven / When your arms fall around me

Sometimes the current's so strong / It's hard to swim upstream

It's easier to turn around / Yea it's much easier to dream

Oh but when the crowds part, / And I see your sweet face,

You're awaiting my return / Yearning for my embrace

Chorus
